

Ending the Meal

- Try to pace yourself to finish your meal around the same time as other dining partners
- Leave your place setting as it is; do not push your plate back when finished
- Place your napkin to the left, not on the floor

Leaving the Table

- Excuse yourself - You do not need to give an explanation
- Place your napkin on the plate to indicate if you are returning to your meal
- Place your chair on your seat

Ending the meal

- Try to pace yourself to finish your meal around the same time as other dining partners
- Leave your place setting as it is; do not wash your plate back when finished
- Place your napkin neatly to the left of your plate, never on the plate over the food
